

Jeffrey J. Tribiano

Jeffrey Tribiano currently serves as Deputy Commissioner for Operations Support, responsible for overseeing internal operations, which includes information technology, human capital, finance, privacy, procurement, planning, facilities, security, enterprise risk, and the office of equity, diversity and inclusion.

Before joining the IRS, Jeff worked for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food, Nutrition and Consumer Services, as the Associate Administrator and Chief Operating Officer. In this role starting in 2010, he directed the overall planning, formulation and direction of the programs and activities related to administration, finance, information technology, civil rights, program management and program operations.

Before joining USDA, Jeffrey worked in the private sector with multiple high-growth organizations. He has held senior positions in Fortune 500 companies and has a comprehensive understanding of Treasury operations, financial management, risk management, process improvement, field audit, IT solutions, management, team building and federal policies and procedures.

He has honorable record of military service, including three mobilizations and deployments to the Middle East. Jeffrey continues to serve in the United States Navy Reserve and currently holds the rank of Captain. In December of 2017 he will become the Commodore of the SECOND Navy Expeditionary Regiment.

Jeffrey graduated from Fordham University in New York City with a bachelor's of arts degree in Economics and holds a Master's Certification in Leadership from Bristol University. He is also a certified Forensic Examiner, is certified in Business Process Re-Engineering and holds a Board Certification in Business Continuity.